

JOHN M. MATYAS

105 Bougainvilla Drive

Born: December 24, 1921 Ward, W.Va.

Died: December 4, 1995

John Matyas moved to Hawthorne in 1990, from Corinth, Miss. He was an Army veteran of World War II, and a member of the Disabled American Veterans.

Funeral service and interment of John's cremains took place in the Hawthorne Garden of Memories on Wednesday, December 6, 1995. A large group of friends and relatives attended.

The service was conducted by the Rev. Donald W. Ferguson of Hawthorne.

A beautiful duet, "Build My Mansion" was sung by Frances and Gene Orr.

John M. Matyas

John M. Francis Matyas, 73, of 105 Bougainvilla Drive, Leesburg, died Monday (Dec. 4, 1995). Born in Ward, W.Va., he moved to Leesburg from Corinth, Miss., in 1990. He was a retired publishing machinist, a member of the Oakland Baptist Church and the Disabled American Veteran's, both in Corinth and a U.S. Army veteran of World War II. Survivors include his wife, Geraldine; a son, David Matyas of Brooksville; a daughter, Dixie Simmons of Jackson, Miss.; five grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren. Beyers Funeral Home, Leesburg.

