

RUSSELL L. MOWRY
301 Hawthorne Blvd.

Born: Providence, R.I.

Died: Leesburg, Fl.

Oct. 21, 1997

Russell L. Mowry moved to Leesburg, Fl., in 1979. He retired from UNCAS Manufacturing Co. in Providence, R.I. Mr. Mowry was a member of VFW, Hawthorne Post; Hawthorne Memorial Committee; Hawthorne Players and Entertainment Group; Hawthorne Shuffleboard Group, and member of the Sons of American Revolution.

Survivors include his wife, May Mowry; daughter Marilyn Mollo of Cumberland, R.I., and a granddaughter, Deborah Pierce.

Memorial Service for Mr. Mowry was held at Hawthorne Memorial Gardens on Oct. 25, 1997.

Russell L. Mowry

Russell Lidstone Mowry, 83, of 301 Hawthorne Blvd., Leesburg, died Tuesday (Oct. 21, 1997). Born in Providence, R.I., he moved to Leesburg from Cumberland, R.I., in 1979. He retired from UNCAS Manufacturing Co. in Providence, R.I.; was a member of Veterans of Foreign Wars Hawthorne Post, Leesburg; a member of Hawthorne Memorial Committee and Hawthorne Players and Entertainment Group; a member of the Hawthorne Shuffleboard Group and a member of the Sons of the American Revolution; and a U.S. Navy Veteran of World War II. Survivors include his wife May Mowry of Leesburg; daughter Marilyn Mollo of Cumberland, R.I.; one granddaughter.

