

ORVEL A. SCHMIDT

110 Ixora Way

Born: October 17, 1910, Herman, Wisconsin

Died: December 25, 1995

Orvel and Jane Schmidt moved to Central Florida in 1975. Both were auxiliaries at Leesburg Regional Medical Center and members of the Unitarian Universalist Congregation in Eustis, Florida.

Orvel's cremains were placed in the Garden of Memories at Hawthorne on January 29, 1996, by Stanley Locke. A memorial service will be held at a later date.

■ ORVEL A. SCHMIDT, 85

... retired teacher

MR. SCHMIDT, 110 Ixora Way, Hawthorne of Leesburg, died Monday, Dec. 25. He was a retired teacher from Pennsylvania State University. Born in Herman, Wis., he moved to Central Florida in 1975. He was a member of the Unitarian Universalist Congregation in Eustis. He was a Leesburg Regional Medical Center auxiliary, a member of the Society of American Foresters, Lions International and Free and Accepted Masons of Wisconsin. He was a member of the American Beekeepers Federation. Survivors: daughter, Freya S. Phillips, Potters Mill, Pa.; sons, Daniel E., Charlotte, N.C., Justin Orvel, Tucson, Ariz.; brother, Delbert R., Peoria, Ariz.; six grandchildren; one great-grandchild. Central Florida Cremation, Tavares.

