

Robert Stanley Reaves, Sr.

131 Royal Palm Drive

Leesburg, Florida (Hawthorne at Leesburg)

"Stan" was born April 25, 1914 at Opelika, Alabama
He expired August 22, ¹⁹⁹⁰ 11 A.M. at Leesburg Regional Medical Center after a lingering illness. (Wednesday)

Survived by wife Doris, Son Robert, Jr. and Richard Douglas Reaves -- also one brother, William of Lynchburg, Virginia, and three grandchildren.

At 2 P.M., Saturday, September 8, 1990, the remains of Robert Stanley Reaves were placed in the Hawthorne Memorial Garden, with approximately one hundred relatives and friends in attendance. Dr. Craig Millett presided over this service, memorializing the deceased. Her sister-in-law, Mary Bowen sang a capella.

Walter Smoyer, chairman of the Hawthorne Memorial Board gave a splendid memorial on Stan, explaining how Stan had created, designed and carried the garden to fruition.

This service at the Garden was followed by a service of resurrection at the Union Congregational Church in Tavares, Florida, after which the family received friends in the church community hall.

The Rev. Gerald Alles and Dr. Millett handled this Service. Helga Russell sang "The Lord's Prayer", the Choir sang Stan's favorite hymns and Gerald Alles sang two solos.
