

Katharine L. MacMasters

G107 Lake Port Square, Leesburg

Died March 19, 1996

Mrs. Katharine L. MacMasters was buried in the Hawthorne Garden of Memories on the 61st anniversary of her marriage to Tyler F. MacMasters.

Katharine MacMasters was born in East Orange, N.J., on June 3rd 1910. She graduated from High School there and went on to Goucher College where she graduated in 1932. Thereafter she worked for her father, a patent attorney.

She and Tyler were married on April 6, 1935. She and Tyler lived in the Summit, N.J. area where Tyler was employed by the "Bell System" until 1975 when they moved to Florida. They became Hawthorne residents in March of 1976.

A major stroke in May of 1995 necessitated full time nursing care. Kay left this earthly on March 19, 1996. Kay is survived by her husband Tyler; two daughters; Barbara and Nancy; two grandchildren Whitney and Lindsey

Kay will be rememberer for her active participation in the Hawthorne shuffling community where her skill and enthusiasm matched that of Tyler.