

Morris C. Milner

Hawthorne Resident at 118 Royal Palm Dr.

Moved to Hawthorne in 1976

Approximately 75 friends attended the service of interring "Morrie's" cremains in our Hawthorne Memorial Garden.

Morris Milner's daughters gave appropriate readings and this included a charming poem by his 15 year old granddaughter, Dawn Chambers.

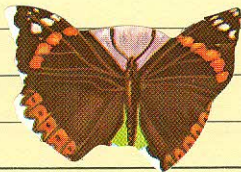

Morrie's wife Margie survives him and lives on here at Hawthorne.

■ MORRIS CLARENCE MILNER,
75

... retired technical salesman

MR. MILNER, 118 Royal Palm Dr., Leesburg, died Thursday. Born in Chicago, he moved to Leesburg from Deerfield, Ill., in 1976. He was a retired technical salesman for Hercules Inc. for 41 years. He was a Presbyterian. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II. Survivors: wife, Margie; daughters, LaRossa Chambers, Metairie, La., Susanne Mikolay, Lake Zurich, Ill., Roberta Brown, Libertyville, Ill.; six grandchildren. Beyers Funeral Home, Leesburg.

LAKE SENTINEL 5/11/91

30th

30

30